THE ACADEMY OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

The Academy of Political Science is affiliated with Columbia University and is composed of men and women interested in political, economic and social questions. The annual dues are five dollars. Members receive the Proceedings and the Political Science Quarterly—each issued four times a year—and are entitled to free admission to all meetings, lectures and receptions under the auspices of the Academy.

Communications regarding the Academy should be addressed to The Secretary of the Academy of Political Science, Columbia University.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

Managing Editor
THOMAS REED POWELL

The Quarterly follows the most important movements of foreign politics but devotes chief attention to questions of present interest in the United States. On such questions its attitude is nonpartisan. Every article is signed; and every article, including those of the editors, expresses simply the personal view of the writer. Each issue contains careful book reviews by specialists, and in March and September numerous recent publications are characterized in brief book notes. In June and December is printed a valuable record of political events throughout the world.

Communications in reference to articles, book reviews and exchanges should be addressed to the Political Science Quarterly, Columbia University, New York City. Intending contributors are requested to retain copies of articles submitted, as the editors disclaim responsibility for the safety of manuscripts. It accompanied by stamps, articles not found available will be returned.

Subscriptions should be forwarded and all business communications addressed to the publishers, Ginn & Company, Lancaster, Pa., or 70 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Yearly subscription, three dollars; single number, seventy-five cents. Back numbers and bound volumes can be obtained from the publishers.
